WINEMAKING

The grapes for this Pinot Noir were crafted with fruit grown in South Eastern Australia. The grapes were picked and crushed early during the peak of harvest to retain the varietal characters and preserve the fruit flavour. Fermentation took place in sweeping arm red fermenters, delivering a gentle wine with a dense, rich colour and superb flavour.

TASTING NOTE

Enticing aromas of plum, cherry and a hint of spicy oak. All supported by dark stone fruits and smooth tannins.

FOOD MATCH

Serve with a delicate wild mushroom risotto or mouthwatering slow-roasted pork belly.
