WINEMAKING

Fruit for the Rosé was cultivated from our Victorian vineyards during the 2023 harvest. The juice was run off the skins early in order to extract the colour and cool ferment. Post fermentation the wine was fined, cold stabilised and filtered, ready for bottling. This process from vineyard to bottle took less than 6 weeks, to keep the wine fresh and vibrant.

TASTING NOTE

Bright and fresh with luscious red berry fruits, a hint of citrus peel and complimented with floral notes with aromas of freshly picked strawberries.

FOOD MATCH

Pull together a antipasto platter or order in your favorite local Thai takeout with the girls. The ideal food wine to share with the ones you love - serve lightly chilled.
